The Institution has a prescribed code of conduct for students, teachers, administrators, and other staff and conducts periodic programs in this regard

This College has a well-prescribed code of conduct for students and all the staff members are displayed on the College website. A discipline monitoring committee has been constituted. The office of the Proctor is entrusted with maintaining discipline and decorum among the student fraternity at all times in order to ensure that no student/students resort to any sort of indiscipline within the campus leading to but not restricted to damage to the college property, reputation and disrupting the student harmony. In addition to this, mentor- mentee is adopted in the campus, in respect of academic issues of students.

The Disciplinary committee invites required faculty from concerned departments., Women Empowerment cell, Hostel Wardens, Student Convener, etc as and when required based on the complaint/case received, to collect records, take their suggestions and inputs about the students under question with regard to their conduct in the campus.

The committee mainly focuses on counseling the students involved in any indiscipline of lesser quantum and try to bring in a positive change in the student's actions thereon. Indiscipline shall include:

- Causing disturbance to a Class or the Office or the Library, the auditorium and the Play Ground etc.
- Disobeying the instructions of teachers or the authorities.
- Misconduct or misbehaviour of any nature at the Examination Centre;
- Misconduct or misbehaviour of any nature towards a teacher or any employee of the College.
- Causing damage, spoiling or disfiguring to the property/equipment of the College.

The Committee is responsible in

- 1) Monitoring the disciplinary climate prevailing in the student community;
- 2) Taking preventive steps such as the issue of notices, warnings, Instructions · regulating certain acts, and other arrangements to forestall acts of individual or collective indiscipline;
